

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
Case No. 20-cv-954

FARHAD AZIMA,

Plaintiff,

v.

NICHOLAS DEL ROSSO and VITAL
MANAGEMENT SERVICES, INC.,

Defendants.

PLAINTIFF'S
MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO SEAL

Plaintiff Farhad Azima hereby respectfully submits this Memorandum of Law in Support of his Motion to Seal Exhibits 1 and 2 in support of Plaintiff's Reply Brief on Plaintiff's Motion to Compel (ECF No. 130).

In considering a party's motion to seal certain documents, the Court "must comply with certain substantive and procedural requirements." Va. Dep't of State Police v. Wash. Post, 386 F.3d 567, 576 (4th Cir. 2004). The Court must (1) give the public notice and a reasonable chance to challenge the motion to seal the documents; (2) consider less drastic alternatives to sealing, including redaction; and (3) if it decides to seal the documents, make specific findings and state the reasons for its decision to seal over the alternatives. Id.

As to the substance of the motion to seal, the Court "first must determine the source of the right of access with respect to each document, because only then can it accurately weigh the competing interests at stake." Id. The Court may seal documents "if the public's right of access is outweighed by competing interests.” In re Knight Pub. Co., 743 F.2d 231, 235 (4th Cir. 1984). The factors the Court takes into account in this regard include “whether the records are sought for improper purposes, such as promoting public scandals or unfairly gaining a business advantage; whether release would enhance the public's understanding of an important historical event; and whether the public has already had access to the information contained in the records.” Id. Based on an evaluation of these and any other relevant factors, the Court must find that the justification for sealing documents overcomes both the First Amendment and common law presumption of access.

The material Plaintiff seeks to seal in Exhibits 1 and 2 includes excerpts from the deposition of Mr. Del Rosso. At various times, Defendants have shifting and inconsistent positions about what categories of information should be treated as confidential. Out of an abundance of caution and in order to avoid burdening the Court with addition litigation at this time, Plaintiff is filing the materials in Exhibits 1 and 2 under seal, but reserves the right to address confidentiality issues with respect to portions of the deposition transcript in later proceedings.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff Farhad Azima respectfully requests that his Motion to Seal Exhibits 1 and 2 be granted, or in the alternative that he be given reasonable time to attempt to redact the exhibits as ordered by the Court to be redacted or for any other relief that the Court deems appropriate.

This, the 16th day of February, 2023.
